SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS

1. Text format requirements
  - Paper size: A4
  - Text length: between 15 and 25 pages long, with average of 2,100 characters per page — including footnotes and bibliographical references
  - Margins: top and lower — 2,0cm; left and right — 3,0cm
  - Justified alignment
  - Font: Times New Roman, regular. Size 12 for title, text, quotations and summary; and size 10 for footnotes (please do not use endnotes)
  - Line spacing: 1,5
  - For emphasis, use italics (not bold nor underlined)
  - Quotations in text: quoted and with no indentation
2. Text title both in the original language and in English
3. Front page identification (to be sent in separate electronic file): Author's name, academic title, position, address, telephone and e-mail.
5. Five keywords
6. Abstract both in the original language and in English; length of 750 characters average, no spaces between lines.
7. To facilitate our double blind review process, authors are invited to send two electronic files, preferably in MS Word: one with text (with title on the first page and no other author identification) and another with front page, containing author data (according to (ii) above). Both files must convey the work's title.

8. Electronic files of text and front page must be sent to the Editorial Committee, via e-mail to aval.artigo@thomsonreuters.com, conveying as subject: Revista de Direito Civil Contemporâneo.
9. Only unpublished material will be considered by the Editorial Committee, that may eventually write back to the authors with suggestions. Texts may be submitted in Portuguese, English, French, German, Spanish and Italian.
10. All authors must previously disclose any conflict of interest and, by submitting the work to the Journal of Contemporary Private Law, imply agreement to the Brazilian legislation regarding authorship. After text acceptance, authors will then be required to transfer copyright, free of charge, for publication.
11. Selected authors will be granted a print copy of the Journal of Contemporary Private Law in exchange of copyright transfer.

São Paulo, Brasil, 4 Jun. 2017.
